

Internationale Arbeitsgemeinschaft für Hymnologie e.V.
International society for hymnological studies
Cercle international d'études hymnologiques

32nd International hymnological conference

29 July to 2 (4) August 2024 | Prague (Czech Republic)

Faith in song

More than 500 years of hymns in print and practice

The Czech Hymnal 1501 and its descendants

www.iah-hymnologie.de

Registration until 1 May 2024

Strahov Library, Philosophical Hall. © Herbert Frank / CC BY 2.0

FACULTY
OF EDUCATION
Charles University

FACULTY OF ARTS
Charles University

EKD

Evangelische Kirche
in Deutschland

More than 500 years of hymns in print and practice

The Czech Hymnal 1501 and its descendants

International conference | 29 July to 2 (4) August 2024

Conference program

Lectures and sectionals (Registration open until 1 May 2024)

Guided tour of the Strahov Library

Hymnal presentations with Ladislav Morawetz and Lukáš Vytlačil

Workshop “Paperless singing” with Ekaterina Porizko

Chamber music concert with organist Jiřina Marešová and other musicians

Ecumenical hymn festival on the subject of “Psalms”

Morning prayers and services of different denominations

Keynote lectures

Czechia, part 1 (Tuesday, 30 July)

Eliška Baťová, Hana Vlhová-Wörner, Martin Horyna, Vladimír Maňas

From Bohemia to the World (Wednesday, 31 July)

Mikie A. Roberts (lecture and Interview)

Czechia, part 2 (Thursday, 1 August)

Tabita Landová, Marie Hanzelková, Jiří Just, Petr Hlaváček

Hymnody in the digital age (Friday, 2 August)

Morten Skovsted, Jonathan Dueck

Excursions

In the footsteps of the Bohemian Brothers in Kralice nad Oslavou and Náměšť nad Oslavou

Saturday, 3 August

In the footsteps of the Hussites in Tábor and Jan Hus in Kozi hrádek

Sunday, 4 August

Conference venue

Faculty of Education of Charles University, churches and other places in the city of Prague

Registration until 1 May 2024

sekretariat@iah-hymnologie.de
www.iah-hymnologie.de